

OPEN REHEARSALS

Singing and Acting Opportunities for Adults and Children

In Good Company is an intergenerational ensemble dedicated to theater that engages, entertains and enlightens through a deeper understanding of our living history; and an appreciation of music, drama and dance across cultures and generations.

Singer-actors of all voices, ages and backgrounds are invited to audition for membership in In Good Company, and join us for performances this Fall through Spring 2016.

Our productions

The Golden Door

The story about how immigrants are changing and enriching the culture of Boston and New England, performed in elementary schools.

Hail to the Chief

Just in time for campaign season, an engaging historical review featuring presidential campaign songs from George Washington to John F. Kennedy.

Voices from the Mountain

The story of Massachusetts native Olive Dame Campbell, one of the first collectors of traditional folk music in Appalachia.
